

- (a) The Euler line of a triangle is a line going through three important triangle centres, the orthocentre, circumcentre, and centroid.

Construct the orthocentre, circumcentre, and centroid of the following. Join these centres together to form Euler's line.

